Description

SOLD by Morzine Immobilier Stunning PRIME detached 5 bedroom chalet, Morzine An outstanding detached chalet at the end of a cul de sac commanding the best views over the mountains and Morzine. Recently constructed by a leading developer in the area this is a perfect chalet for those looking for tranquility yet close to the vibrant village of Morzine. The village is under a 15 minute walk with access to the shops, bars and restaurants. This detached chalet is sat on a superb plot of 1,164sqm. To the rear of the chalet is woodland which is non constructible and classified as Agricultural land. This is really quite a retreat away from all others in the area. The chalet has been built to the highest standard with a luxury fit out. Terraces are all around the property and further garden areas situated up into the woodland area looking over the chalet. The chalet comprises around 300sq m of habitable area not including the garages and storage areas. The open plan living area with part vaulted ceiling leading round to the large modern kitchen are sublime. The views from inside are truly amazing. This leads onto a large terrace with dining, hot tub and relaxation area. The 5 ensuite bedrooms are all spacious. One double bedroom has been fitted with double bunks as a childrens room with large television. On top of this are all the accompaniments you would expect of a chalet of this standing. Spa area with shower, treatment room, cinema room, ski boot room and wine cave. It is no wonder that this chalet is currently run as a high end catered chalet. There is even a heated driveway for when it snows! The layout is as follows Ground floor

- Entry hallway
- Double bedroom ensuite, laid out as kids room
